

Full-Time Chef Opening Mid-February 2020

The Barn B&B Walla Walla is the first (and only) purpose-built luxury bed & breakfast and opened its doors on April 1st 2019. We have 7 suites and at full occupancy, accommodate 14 guests. We have taken hospitality and our food offering to another level already.

When we reopen on March 1, we want to build a reputation for the most amazing breakfasts and dinners in the country.

Walla Walla has earned a reputation for producing exceptional wines (over 140 wineries) and has become a destination for high-end visitors looking for luxury lodging and dining experiences.

Check out our reviews on TripAdvisor and Google. And visit our website at www.bnwallawalla.com and our Instagram photographs at the bottom of our home page to get an idea of the food we have been producing. Here's an article about us that appeared in the Bend Bulletin: <https://www.bendbulletin.com/lifestyle/7242810-151/luxury-and-wine-beckon-in-walla-walla>

We are looking for a full-time chef to start when we reopen after winter in mid-February 2020. The successful candidate will have the following qualities:

- At least 1 year of culinary work experience
- Initiative to seek out new recipes from around the world
- The desire and flair to produce and present exceptionally artistic food
- Plated 3-course breakfasts and one or two family-style or plated 3-course dinners a week

Contact:

Anand Rao

The Barn B&B Walla Walla

- an 'Auberge de Campagne'

1624 Stovall Road

Walla Walla, WA 99362

M: (509) 730-3662

bnwallawalla.com

info@thebarnbnb.com

@thebarnbnwallawalla

What's On in Walla Walla?