About Us

We are a small private member's club in the beautiful west hills of Portland seeking a seasonal line cook for our busy summer season. We are a small, close-knit team of experienced and skilled culinary professionals. This is a great learning opportunity for someone just getting started in the industry, or just out of culinary school. Perfect for someone looking for some extra summer income. We are seeking someone from mid-May until the end of August, with the possibility of some part time hours or on-call shifts in the fall and winter. The small size of our operation means that you will get to try your hand at everything, from baking and pastry, fresh pasta and protein fabrication. We are willing to train you from the beginning, or supplement your experience. We want to help you to succeed. Come join our team!
